

NB Proud Awards 2023 – Guidelines for Applicants

The NB Proud Awards is a financial award provided to students graduating from a New Brunswick high school AND attending a New Brunswick post-secondary institution. This year five awards will be presented across the five economic regions of New Brunswick (Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest, and Central).

How to Apply:

Step 1: Review the application guidelines carefully.

Step 2: Respond to the following question for your application.

Question
The year is 2035 and you're living your best life in New Brunswick. In an essay of no more than 500 words, tell us your potential career and how you are contributing to the province's success and economic growth. Take and include a photo that relates to this subject.

Step 3: Once you've written your short essay, please check the following criteria:

- ✓ Between 400 and 500 words
- ✓ Showcases authenticity and positivity
- ✓ Proofread before submission

Step 4: Take a photo of yourself that relates to subject of your essay. Hint: be creative!

Step 5: Fully complete the online application form. This is where you will include your background information, upload your short essay, and upload your photo.

Checklist:
