Dear Parents:

Re: Professional Learning Supports Student Success

Anglophone School Districts are making improvements to professional learning.

In the attached Anglophone School District Calendar, there are five half days for professional learning. This model aligns with best practice and ensures consistency with all school districts in the province. School will be dismissed early on these days to provide professional learning opportunities for teachers. Students will attend school in the morning as usual.

The overall amount of professional learning time in the school calendar remains the same. However, one full day of professional learning for teachers has been moved outside instructional time to September 1st. What has changed is the format and quality of the professional learning. Professional learning for teachers creates better student learning and is the key component to improving teacher practice.

We are looking forward to these improvements in the upcoming school year. As teachers learn and grow, so do their students.

Sincerely,

Beth Stymiest
Superintendent
